Roberto Clemente, un hombre de palabra

Pregunta esencial
¿Cómo podemos transformar las palabras en acciones?
Lee acerca de cómo un niño hizo realidad sus sueños y ayudó a los demás con sus palabras y sus acciones.

y vio los primeros destellos de luz asomarse por el horizonte. Esa mañana, Monem acompañaría a su papá a trabajar en el cafetal por primera vez. Durante el desayuno, Melchor Clemente le explicó a su hijo cómo debía amarrarse una cuerda alrededor de los tobillos para que las culebras y los insectos del cafetal no se le metieran por los pantalones. A Monem le gustó la idea porque se sentía más protegido, pero también porque el pantalón ahora se parecía un poco a los pantalones de los peloteros profesionales, ajustados dentro de las medias. En camino al cafetal, a caballo y con el machete al cinto, Monem jamás se habría imaginado que su sueño de convertirse en un jugador de béisbol profesional se haría realidad. Tampoco podía imaginarse que sería la más famosa y brillante estrella del béisbol en la historia de Puerto Rico.
